Germany, Austria, & Switzerland Trip ▪ Passion Play

Hello, First Class Club members!

What a spring and summer we have had! I hope you are enjoying the beautiful sunny days we are having now. The summer is going by way too quickly!

A few of us went on the Alaska trip and thoroughly enjoyed the warmer-than-usual temps there. We got to see Denali (formerly known as Mount McKinley) without clouds covering the view, which is quite unusual I'm told! We also saw lots of wildlife on our trip: bear, moose, Dall sheep, caribou, reindeer (domesticated caribou), whales, and sea otters, just to name a few. It was a great combination of land and sea tours. We also saw Hubbard Glacier "calving," which is what it's called when a large chunk of a glacier breaks off into the sea, as is shown in the below picture.

I have some smaller trips planned for this fall—I hope you can join us! Please note the upcoming deadlines of August 22 for Worthing Olde Towne Theatre and August 27 for Moon River—The Best of Andy Williams at Chanhassen.

First Bank & Trust COMMUNITY CORNER

In the first half of 2019, First Bank & Trust donated to these community projects, events, and non-profit organizations. Though the following area organizations received our donations, we all benefit.

- Pipestone Area Softball Assn.
- Lincoln County Fair Assn.
- Edgerton Dutch Festival
- Water Tower Festival
- SW Mental Health Center
- Pipestone County Sheriff – Canine Dog
- American Cancer Society
- Calumet Players
- Pipestone Summer Spectacular
- Pipestone County Fair
- Historic Pipestone

We're proud to share these examples of how we support our local community. And we're even more proud to call this community our home!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Beer for Breakfast
Worthing Olde Towne Theatre
Friday, September 13

A group of middle-aged buddies reunite for a “guys’ weekend” in a snowed-in cabin to eat chili, drink beer, and relive the good old days. Despite divorce, unemployment, and a stroke, spirits are high until Jessie, the wife of absent friend Adrian, shows up in his place. An epic battle of wits and stamina ensues: Will the men win their right to an all-out guy fest, or will woman be crowned the stronger sex after all? Join us and find out!

The cost of this event is $80, which includes the show, bus ride, and driver’s gratuity. Deadline to sign up is Thursday, August 22.

Moon River – The Best of Andy Williams
Chanhassen Dinner Theater
Friday & Saturday, October 11–12

Andy Williams was the “American Balladeer” of his day, but who fills that role today? Ben Utecht is a former University of Minnesota tight end and Super Bowl champion. Following five known concussions, Ben ended his football career to focus on a second career in music. He has sold over 100 million records worldwide and still has a vast audience wanting to hear that smooth, romantic voice of Andy Williams as Ben sings songs like “Moon River,” “(Where Do I Begin?) Love Story,” “Born Free,” and many more.

Since the dinner and show start at 6 p.m., we will stay overnight in Chanhassen. The cost of this trip is $255, which includes the dinner, show, bus ride, hotel stay, and driver’s gratuity. Deadline to sign up is Tuesday, August 27.

Irving Berlin’s White Christmas
Washington Pavilion, Sioux Falls
Friday, November 15

White Christmas tells the story of a song-and-dance team putting on a show in a magical Vermont inn and falling for a stunning sister act in the process. This show is full of dancing, laughter, and some of the greatest songs ever written!

Before the show on Friday, November 15, we will eat dinner together at Leonardo’s, a restaurant in the Washington Pavilion in Sioux Falls. The menu consists of salads, sandwiches, wraps, and pizza (a lighter meal), which run around $7–$8. The cost of the meal is not included in the price of this trip, since you will be ordering individually. The cost of this event is $108, which covers the show ticket, bus ride, and driver’s gratuity. Deadline to sign up is Friday, September 27.
